MARRAKECH

We suggest an early-morning hot-air balloon excursion offering spectacular Marrakech panoramas.

Founded between 1070-1072 by Almoravid tribes, Marrakech is still a long-time political, economic and cultural center. Its influences were felt throughout the western Muslim world, from North Africa to Andalusia in what is now Spain. The Marrakech medina is a UNESCO World Heritage Site featuring a number of landmarks and other recommended sights.

On day 6 we suggest a walking tour with our official guide to the medina (the old city) featuring stops at Mellah (the Jewish quarter), the Palais Badi and the old-city souk. Transfer to the hotel at the end of the afternoon. Free time the remainder of the day. Your driver is always available. Overnight at L'Hotel Marrakech or La Mamounia Marrakech or Amanjena

DAY 7

After museums, a side-car ride to Palmerie—Marrakech's "green lung"—is a rollicking, only-in-Morocco experience not to be missed.

Palmerie is a true oasis on Marrakech's outskirts, famed for its gorgeous palm groves that spread across a 140Km² area featuring hundreds of thousands of trees that—according to legend—were grown from seeds dating to expulsions almost one thousand years ago, by Arab soldiers during Almoravid dynasty rule in Marrakech.
