The Langham, London

In 1865, The Langham, London first opened its doors. Recognized as Europe's first 'Grand Hotel', it sought to revolutionize the luxury hotel experience. 157 years later, many things have changed, but the hotel remains one of the world's most iconic hotels — famed for its legendary hospitality. Along with an innovative spirit and playful, pink heritage, The Langham, London continues to captivate with Palm Court, the birthplace of Afternoon Tea, The Wigmore, an award winning modern British tavern, SAUCE an on-site cookery school and world class Artesian cocktail bar. Enjoy private check-ins and tantalizing refreshments created in collaboration with two-star Michelin chef, Michel Roux Jr. At the Chuan Spa, unwind with our signature spa treatments, relax in the pool, or crush your goals in our ultra-modern fitness studio.

All Virtuoso Guests receive:

- Full buffet breakfast for two daily
- US$100 food and beverage credit per stay
