

ROYAL MANSOUR
CASABLANCA

THE ROYAL MANSOUR REINVENTS ITS HISTORY.

The Royal Mansour Casablanca, originally built in 1952 in the district designed by town planner Michel Ecochard, is an emblematic building of Casablanca.

Besides its history, it marks the crossing point between modern art and contemporary architecture, initiated by the pioneers, and the modern designer of the second generation of architects in Morocco. Inspired from this strong heritage with a look to the future to regain an undisputed influence in Casablanca, the Royal Mansour is the finest luxury property in town, offering the highest level of service, with a total of 149 guest rooms and Suites, 7 event venues, 5 outlets for the gourmets and an amazing Spa on 2 levels.
