Clause against Sexual Exploitation of Children in Contracts with Suppliers to Six Senses La Sagesse Grenada

Six Senses La Sagesse Grenada condemns any and all activities related to any sexual abuse and exploitation of children, i.e., sexual exploitation, trafficking, violence and pornography. We are committed to abide by and implement The Code of Conduct for the Protection of Children from Sexual Exploitation in Travel and Tourism in collaboration with ECPAT International (www.ecpat.net).

By adding this clause to our contractual agreement, we are not insinuating that your company is engaged in any activities related to sexual exploitation of children but encouraging you to support and sign The Code of Conduct. Together with Six Senses Hotels and Spas and IHG, we would like you to Say No to Child Sex Tourism.

By signing this Contract, the business partner agrees to:

- Refrain from knowingly engaging or dealing with companies who are engaged in sexual exploitation of children.
- Prohibit storage or use of images which sexually exploit children.
- Report sexual exploitation to local law enforcement authorities should your company become aware of such exploitation either on your company's premises or on that of a supplier.

Six Senses La Sagesse Grenada reserves the right to cancel the contract if it is discovered that your company is not complying with this clause or that your company is involved in any way in the facilitation, encouragement, or toleration of sexual exploitation of children within the context of your company's daily operations.
