THE ISLAND A CYCLADIC GEM

- Located in the Aegean Sea, part of the Cycladic Island, Santorini was shaped by a volcanic eruption in 1.600 BCE.
- Known for its Caldera, breathtaking sunsets, and unique black, red, and white beaches, it blends natural beauty with rich history.
- Highlights include the ancient Akrotiri archaeological site and iconic whitewashed villages such as Fira, Oia, and Imerovigli, which are perched on lofty cliffs.
- The island is a culinary and wine destination, renowned for Assyrtiko wines, cherry tomatoes, and volcanic soil-grown fava beans.
- From exploring charming villages to savoring local flavors and witnessing sunsets over the Caldera, Santorini offers timeless elegance and unforgettable experiences.

THE UNBOUND COLLECTION BY HYATT

The Unbound Collection by Hyatt brand is a portfolio of independent, premium hotel properties, ranging from historic urban gems to contemporary trend-setters and boutique properties to resorts.

ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN

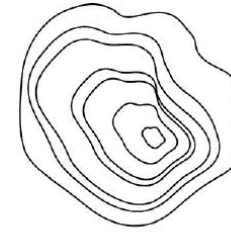

Located near Vourvoulos village, surrounded by lava-formed slopes, vineyards, and traditional “pezoules,” Magma Resort blends harmoniously with its natural surroundings.

Its architecture, inspired by Santorini’s volcano, uses water, light, and air to create a contemporary design with historical charm.

Minimal earth tones, expansive spaces, and ground-level residences form a serene retreat, merging hospitality, culture, and leisure offering a refined alternative to Santorini’s bustling commercial zones.

Designed by People and Elastic Architects, Magma Resort is tailored for global travelers seeking authenticity and elegance, off the beaten track.

AN ODE TO THE GREEK CUISINE

CONSULTING CHEF LFTERIS SOULTATOS

Chef Lfteris was born in Crete and began his culinary journey in five-star hotels. He traveled the world, working with renowned chefs at high-end restaurants. His passion for Greek Cuisine and fresh local products led him to promote them globally at gastronomy conferences. As an ambassador of Greek gastronomy, Chef Lfteris invites guests to a sensory journey at Magma Resort, celebrating Greece's rich culinary heritage through dishes that honor the land's diverse regions, from North to South.

EXECUTIVE HOTEL CHEF STEFANOS KOKKALIS

Chef Stefanos was born in Italy and with experience across Europe, he returned to Santorini in 2024 to lead the kitchen at Magma Resort. Combining modern techniques with respect for Greek tradition, he showcases local Greek products in creative, contemporary dishes. His menus blend international influences with beloved Greek flavors, earning nominations for the Greek Golden Chef's Hat Awards. With a deep love for Greek Cuisine and a focus on innovation, Chef Stefanos aims to offer delicious, elegant, and accessible culinary experiences, inspired by his travels, education, and passion for Greek cooking.

PRISTINE SANTORINI BEACHES

HONORED WITH BLUE FLAGS

Santorini's seven beaches, awarded with prestigious Blue Flags and recognized for their exceptional water quality, safety, environmental management and services:

Yalos: 2.3 km (5.1 miles)

Welcome to a vibrant boho-style heaven, where Mediterranean cuisine and cocktails come together. Enjoy delicious dishes and drinks, beach shopping and stunning landscape, perfect for parties and gatherings.

Monolithos: 6.8 km (4.2 miles)

Situated on the east coast, family-friendly with shallow waters and fine sand, it is less crowded than Kamari or Perissa and perfect for kids and relaxation.

Kamari One & Kamari Two: 9.4 km (5.8 miles)

Situated on the island's east side, it is one of the most popular beaches, offering a long stretch of black sand, crystal-clear water, lifeguard presence and a lively promenade full of cafes and shops. Sea Track available (enhanced accessibility for guests with reduced mobility)

Agios Georgios Agios Georgios: 14 km (8.7 miles)

Located at the island's southern, it is known for its peaceful atmosphere, fine black volcanic sand, and well-organized beach bars. It's ideal for families and those seeking a more laid-back vibe.

Vlychada: 14 km (8.7 miles)

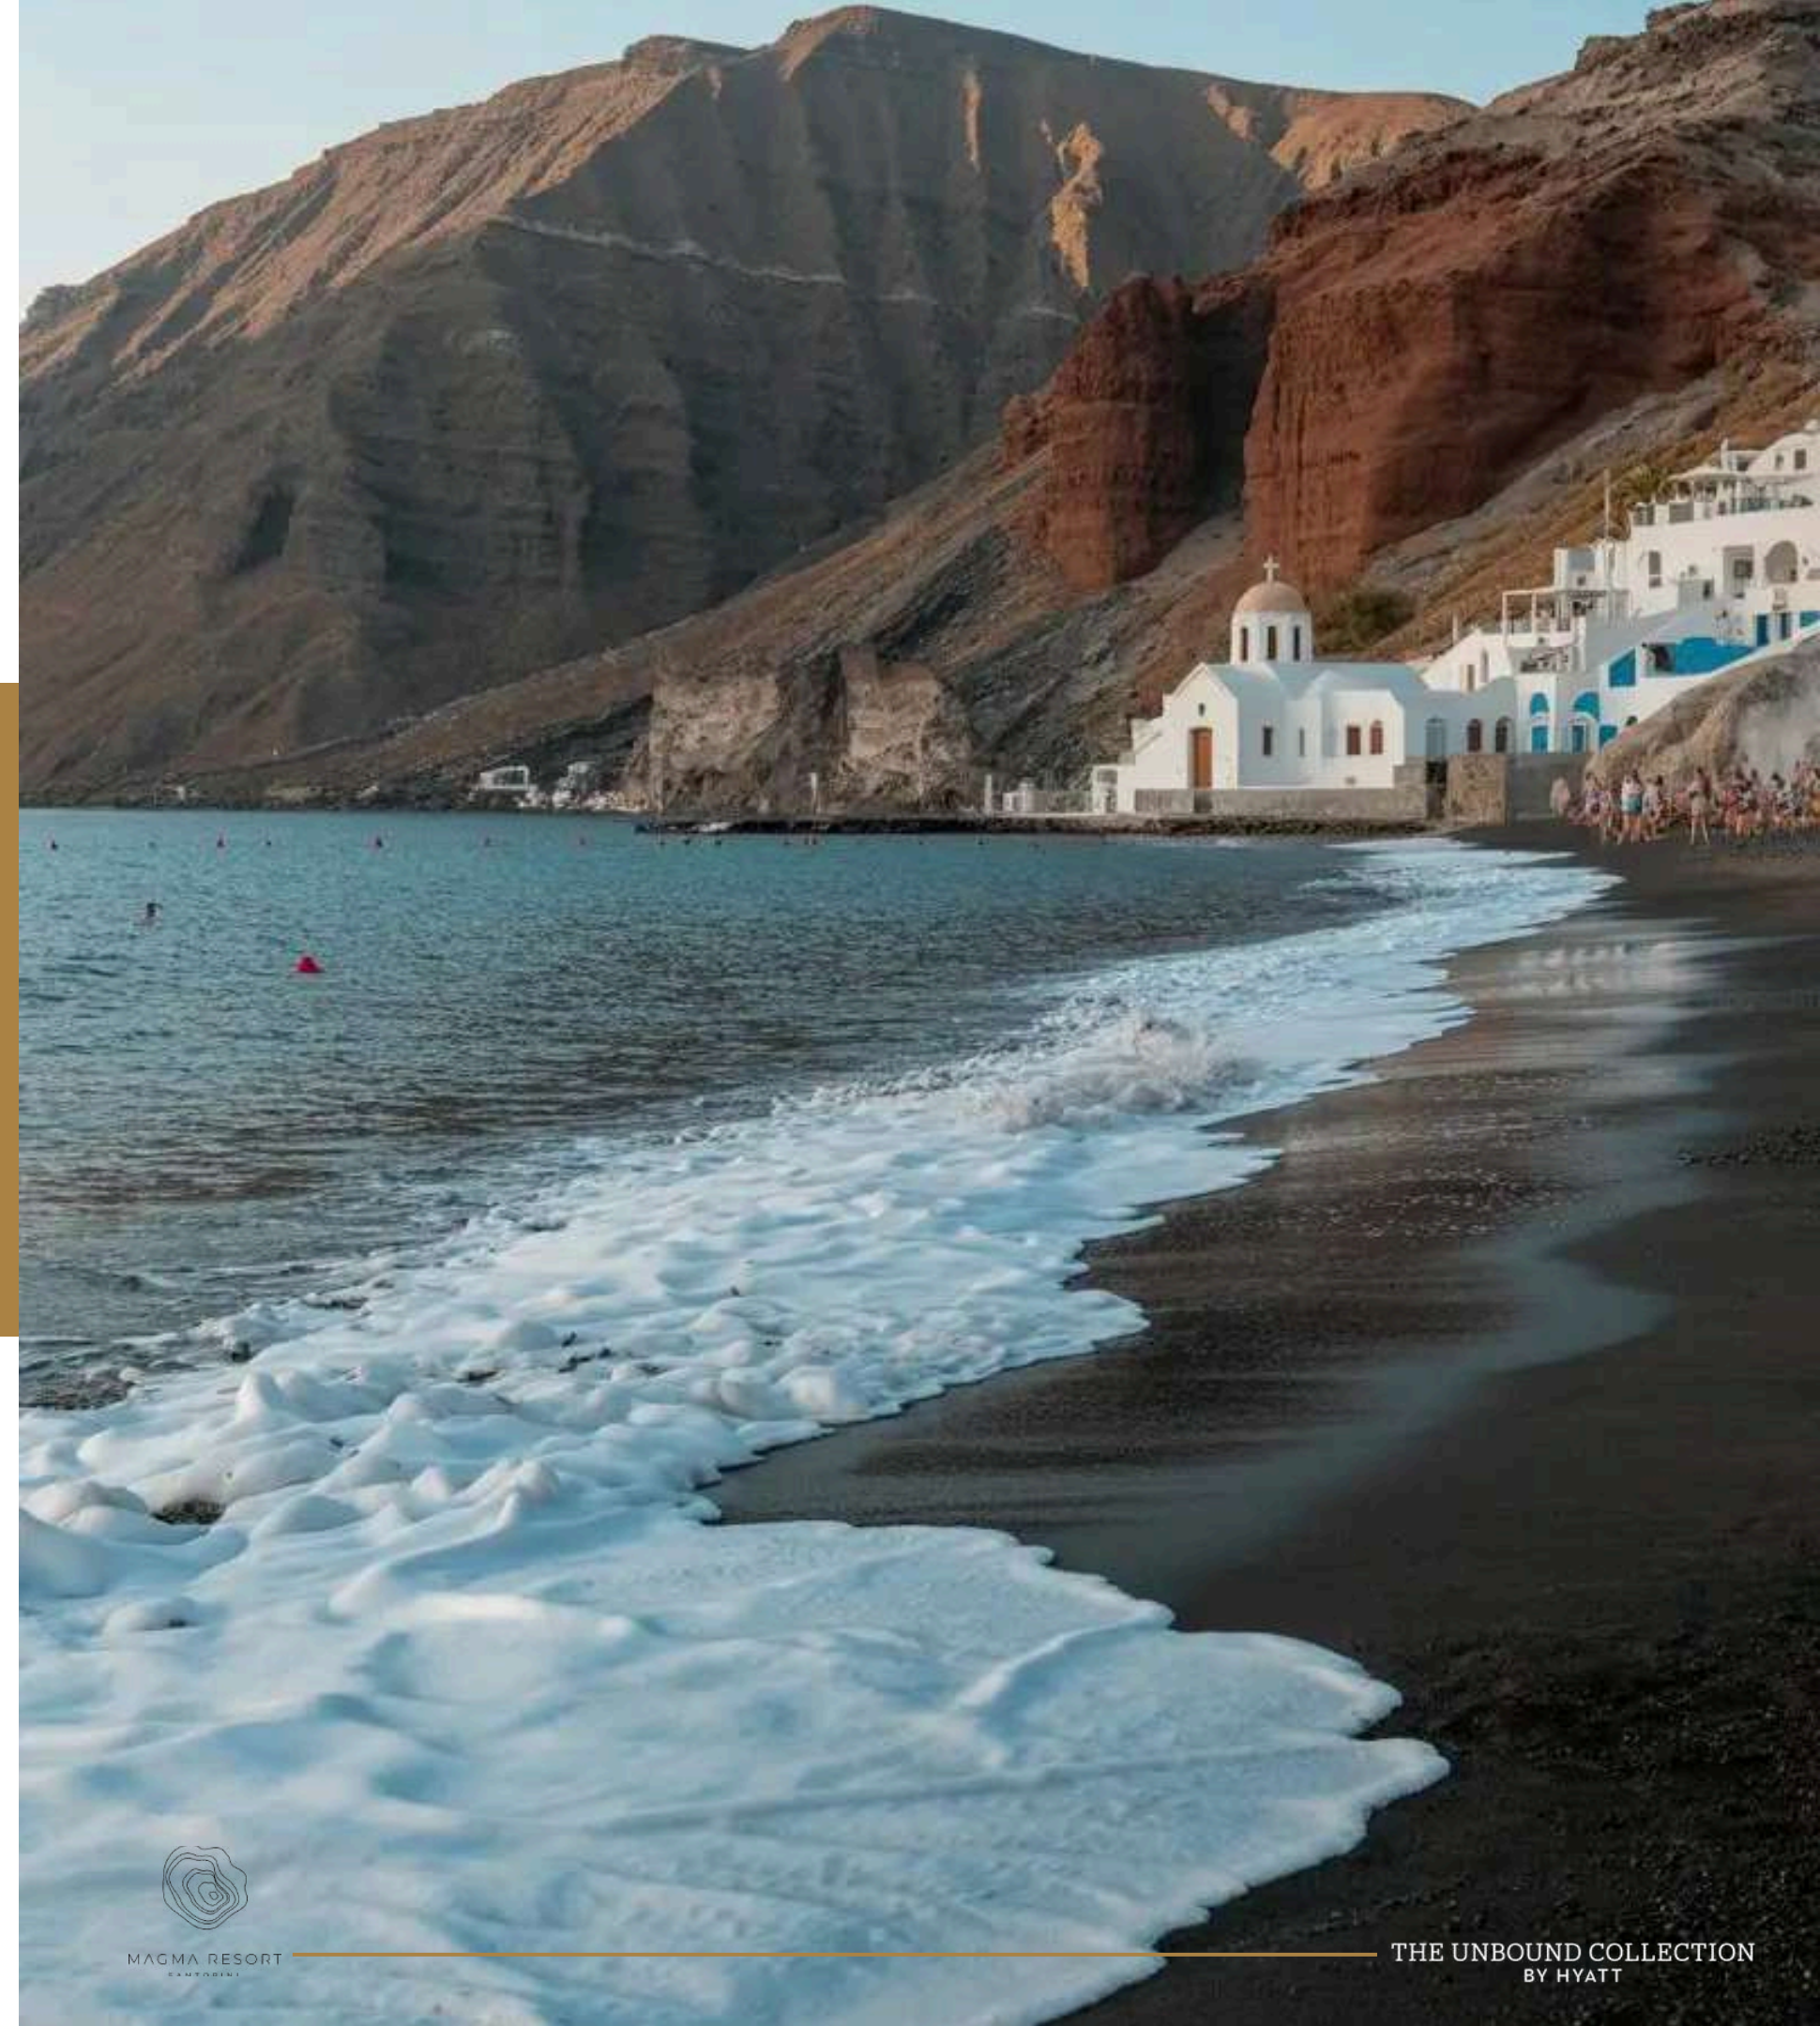

A unique beach surrounded by tall, sculpted volcanic cliffs, resembling lunar landscapes. Located on the south coast, it is perfect for photography lovers and those looking for a quieter spot with natural beauty.

Perivolos: 15 km (9.3 miles)

It is an extension of Perissa Beach, famous for its deep black sand, beach clubs and crystal-clear waters. Located on the southeast coast, it is ideal for visitors who enjoy a mix of relaxation and entertainment by the sea.

Perissa: 15 km (9.3 miles)

Just north of Perivolos, it is equally striking with dark sand, calm waters and excellent tourist facilities, offering a beautiful view of Mesa Vouno. Sea Track available (enhanced accessibility for guests with reduced mobility)
