

22 Oceanfront Suites on the Pacific Coast.

Located on the Pacific Ocean in Puerto Escondido, Kymaia is a 22-suite boutique hotel conceived as a sanctuary where nature, architecture, and hospitality blend in perfect harmony. Each space has been thoughtfully designed to reconnect guests with Oaxaca's natural surroundings, offering privacy, tranquility, and a deeply sensory experience by the sea.

GASTRONOMY

Kymaia offers a high-end culinary experience through three dining venues led by renowned chef Eduardo Garcia, celebrating local ingredients and the richness of contemporary Mexican cuisine.

Septimus:

The hotel's main restaurant, set beneath a majestic palapa, where breakfast and dinner are served. The cuisine draws inspiration from the ocean and local ingredients, blending Oaxacan tradition with contemporary techniques.

Huachinango Bar:

Located by the pool, it is the perfect spot to enjoy handcrafted cocktails, ceviches, tostadas, and fresh dishes in a relaxed atmosphere with ocean views.

La Cueva

An intimate underground restaurant for up to 10 guests, accessible by reservation only. It offers a multisensory fine-dining experience in a truly unique setting.

AZUMI WELLNESS

Kymaia's wellness program is designed to restore balance between body, mind, and nature.

Experiences include:

- Spa massages and treatments
- Ice bath and sauna
- Yoga and meditation
- Temazcal ritual
- Wellness experiences at Azumi

Each experience draws inspiration from ancestral rituals and contemporary wellness practices, creating a space for physical and spiritual renewal.

TOURS & EXPERIENCES

From Kymaia, guests can explore the natural and cultural richness of Oaxaca's coast through curated experiences:

- Horseback riding along the beach
- Whale watching and marine life observation
- Private romantic dinners
- Sea turtle release
- Excursions to Mazunte, Zipolite, and Punta Cometa
- Experiences at Laguna de Manialtepec

Each experience is designed to connect visitors with the wild essence of Puerto Escondido and its unique landscapes.

